DPNS is an Adult Education class in the Davis Joint Unified School District. Parent participation hours acquired through parent attendance at DPNS-sponsored or scheduled educational programs and lectures, participation or observation days, and other DPNS Director-supervised events during the school year.

A reduction in certain requirements may be available for families with more than one child enrolled in DPNS programs. Please ask a Director about one-parent household policies.

Last month's tuition refund policy: The only instance in which the June deposit may be refunded is if a family withdraws after completing at least one month in DPNS and provides 30 days' notice of withdrawal. Families with multiple children enrolled can continue to receive a partial refund for siblings enrolled in less expensive programs.
